The third sector was the contemporary church this church used modern christian music in its worship services so all kinds of instruments were used however they did not sing christian rock because it was not considered appropriate for worship services outside the church however people were able to listen to christian rock

Finally the fourth division was called the mixed church the choir of this section sang music of different styles all christian lyrics of course Each of these quarters had a 24 7 camera to show what was happening in that area all the time this kind of camera is considered a television station the choir chants or sings 24 7 so there would be always something to watch on that particular station

Each of these four quarters had a choir that consisted of one thousand males one thousand females one thousand boys and one thousand girls all the boys and girls were between the ages of ten and eighteen all males and females were between the ages of eighteen and thirty however the chanters of the angelic church were not considered a choir but it was called angelic army

Because there were about four thousand members in each choir each choir would be divided into sub choirs so during worship services only few hundred members sang sometimes each choir would select one hundred boys one hundred girls one hundred men and one hundred women and will send them to perform in other places
